

Scope of Repairs

A propane water heater in a very large custom home outside Santa Rosa exploded causing significant damage – blown out walls, windows, skylights, doors, etc.

Originally the loss was estimated between $350,000 and $500,000.

Our structural evaluation and scope of repairs showed that the damage was mostly cosmetic, which lead to a reduction of the actual loss by over $100,000.